Legacy Cottage Plaque

The Legacy Cottage plaque features an etching courtesy of Tay Valley Township artist Franc van Oort.

The plaque measures 8 x 10 inches and is suitable to hang in your cottage or outside.

Criteria

- ✓ Direct descendants of the same family should have owned the cottage for at least 50, 75, 100, or 125 consecutive years
- ✓ A family member should still own the cottage property
- ✓ Cottages that have been rebuilt or converted into permanent homes are eligible
- ✓ Cottages can be on a lake, river or creek in Lanark County

Government funding is not available to cover the cost of the plaques. Hence, we ask that you pay $60 to cover the cost of your plaque.

Please submit your application form and cheque by Monday, August 14, 2017

You will be notified when your plaque is ready to be picked up at your municipal office.

Tay Valley Township is administering the Legacy Cottage Program on behalf of Lanark County municipalities. For each plaque, please make a cheque payable to Tay Valley Township for $60. Bring your application form and cheque to the Tay Valley Township office or mail to:
