At Home in Tay Valley weaves together the history of the Algonquin, the arrival of the first settlers in 1816, their economic and community life, and the 20th century arrivals: the cottagers, campers and hippies. The result: an anthology richly illustrated with maps, paintings and photographs, plus the tales, family recollections and special memories of those who know it best – the people of Tay Valley.

Burnstown Publishing House, together with Tay Valley Township, will publish At Home in Tay Valley in September 2015. Readers are encouraged to reserve a copy from the limited number of books to be printed.

Proceeds from the sale of At Home in Tay Valley will be directed to a history scholarship for a student graduating from Perth and District Collegiate Institute or from St. John Catholic High School who has been accepted into an apprenticeship, college or university program and who has demonstrated a keen interest in history. Donations to the scholarship are welcome.
